Ichigo Asset Management

- Japan-Only
- Engagement
- Positive Change
- Social Contribution

一期一会
ICHIGO

Japan Opportunity

- Compelling valuations
  - 1532 of 3824 listed Japanese companies trade below book value in a country where book is largely tangible and often mostly cash
- Market inefficiencies
  - 600 companies have zero research coverage, another 700 are covered by just one “analyst,” frequently just an automated quantitative-screening service
  - Absent an event, they are ignored
  - Under-known, under-owned, under-valued

一期一会
ICHIGO

Japan Opportunity

- Positive structural change
  - Improved transparency of Japanese accounting/disclosure (ongoing)
  - Radical shift to supportive BOJ monetary policy (Jan 13)
  - Launch of JPX-Nikkei Index 400 (Jan 14)
  - New Stewardship Code (Feb 14)

一期一会
ICHIGO

Japan Opportunity

- Japanese government for the first time sets a minimum return goal for all Japanese companies – ROE 8% (Aug 14)
  - (Ichigo's Scott Callon & Kenichiro Yoshida were both members of the METI Ito Review drafting committee)
- New Corporate Governance Code to dramatically strengthen corporate governance rules and empower shareholders (Dec 14 draft, implementation from Jun 15)
  - (Ichigo's Scott Callon on FSA Council of Experts drafting committee)

一期一会
ICHIGO

Japan Opportunity

- Until Abenomics, the world had given up on Japan
  - Shortage of market participants is one reason why so many companies continue to have low valuations
  - When interest surges, very few investors have the background to know what to own

一期一会
ICHIGO

Japan Opportunity

- Asymmetric return potential
  - Ichigo supports management-led positive change in under-valued Japanese companies
  - If we fail, the downside is market impact
  - If we succeed, the upside is a significant increase in corporate value

一期一会
ICHIGO

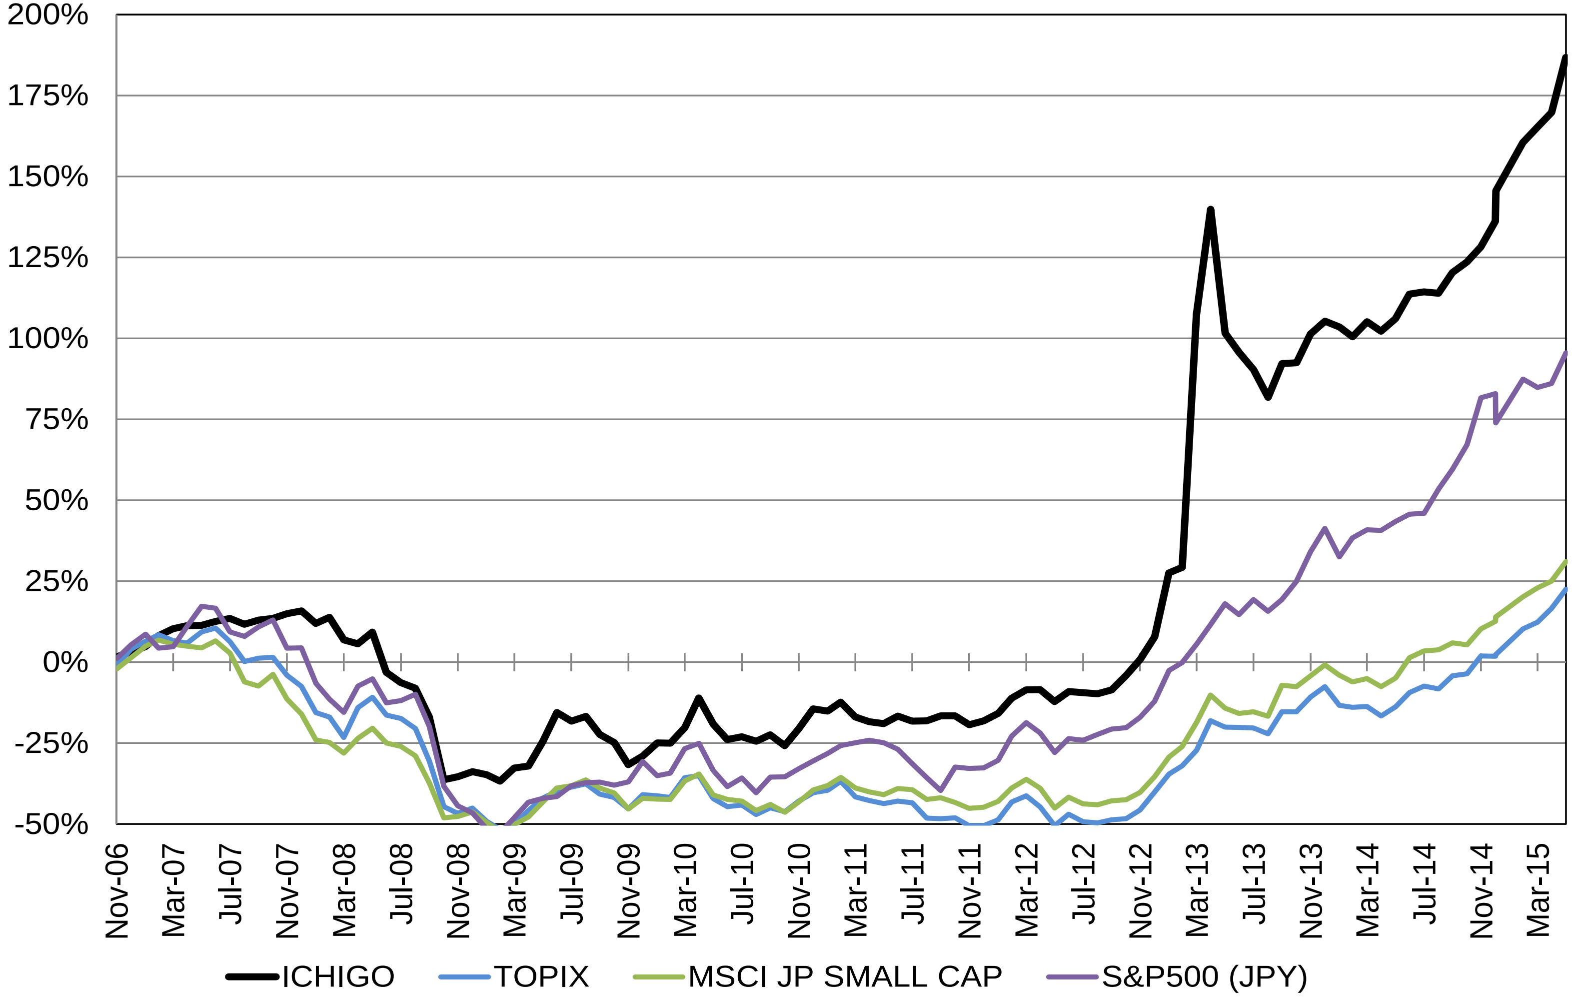
Commitment to Companies

- Supporting the long-term success of Ichigo portfolio companies is a core driver of Ichigo as an investor and shareholder
- Japan's biggest opportunity to increase corporate value comes from partnering and sharing success with other important stakeholders in a way consistent with Japanese values

Respect for Management

- We are not smarter than management
- We are just different – as investors, we have a primary focus on returns
- We join our capital markets, finance, global, and analytical expertise with management's deep industry and operational expertise

Cumulative Net Performance



一期一会
ICHIGO

Portfolio Construction

- Concentrated portfolio with 10-15 major positions – does not mimic a market portfolio (Ichigo active share = 94% vs. TPX and 95% vs MSCI JP SMALL CAP)
- Concentration limits of 25% per single position and 50% per sector
- Investors can choose from two currency classes:
  - US dollar-denominated --- Japanese yen foreign exchange risk is hedged
  - Japanese yen-denominated --- Unhedged, in local currency terms

一期一会
ICHIGO

Ichigo Investment Criteria

- Valuation gap
- Balance sheet strength
- Liquidity

➡ Significant Return Opportunity

一期一会
ICHIGO

Ichigo Investment Criteria

- Valuation gap
  - Public market valuation significantly below either existing intrinsic value or future value based upon executing a credible value-enhancing change agenda
  - Companies with readily understandable and durable businesses
    - Old economy, not new economy
    - Significant operating histories
    - Market leaders
    - Frequently major share ownership by senior management

一期一会
ICHIGO

Ichigo Investment Criteria

- Balance sheet strength
  - Leverage which is either non-existent or conservative
  - Frequently net-cash (more cash than debt)
  - Well-understood asset valuations
  - For control positions, we are willing to accept more debt on the B/S if there is a clear path to restructuring and deleveraging to get to prudent levels

一期一会
ICHIGO

Ichigo Investment Criteria

- Liquidity
  - Sufficient liquidity to allow large-scale portfolio redemptions within the redemption parameters of the Ichigo fund
  - Managed at both individual investment and portfolio level

Ichigo Investment Criteria

- Significant Return Opportunity
  - Not a buy, hold, and hope strategy.
  - Visible opportunity to support a positive catalyst, led by management, resulting in corporate value-enhancement
  - Either control or sufficiently dispersed shareholder ownership among other independent, return-oriented shareholders (i.e., not cross-shareholders)
